Hi Simon,

Apologies I drafted a reply to this email upon receiving your response but it doesn't appear I ever sent it.

We have no problem with the land being accessed by an inspector, it is already in use as a public footpath. We just ask that we are kept informed as this matter is progressed.

My main points of concern are that we have a dog whom we let out in our garden which is gated / fenced off separate the the footpath area. I wouldn't appreciate any members of public entering our garden / leaving gates open / littering. We also are expecting a baby so wish to ensure our privacy and security is maintained.

Kind regards
Megan Haslam
