Chorley & South Ribble Short Breaks Service

The Short Break Service at Leyland has been designed to cater for up to 4 people with Learning or Physical Disabilities who require a Short Break with specialised support facilities.

The property is also in easy reach of Leyland Town Centre and all its amenities and is a substantial in size with a well maintained private garden to the rear

The property is pleasantly located in Leyland opposite Worden Park. The Park is famous for its charms and history from the famous Farrington family, enjoyable social events held throughout the year or just to enjoy the tranquillity of a walk by the river.

For all people who use the service a person centred plan is developed that will ensure each person gets the most of their stay, e.g. working towards gaining increased independence and using local community leisure resources. There is a wide range of different things to do in and around both Leyland, Chorley & Preston.
