

The Dealers

What have you learned in terms of their motivation, the risks to them and their tactics?

Parents/Adults

What have you learned in terms of parental/adult views on young people's choices, the risks involved and what parents/adults need to know and understand?

The Users

What have you learned about the risks involved with taking New Psychoactive Substances? What advice would you give to someone choosing to take them?

What part did social media play in the film?

Is there anything you still want to know about New Psychoactive Substances?