From the minds of Guillermo del Toro and Daniel Kraus comes a new novel about the fears that move in unseen places.

Trollhunters

Guillermo Del Toro
Read by Joe Jameson

Jim Sturges is your typical teen in suburban San Bernardino – one with an embarrassingly overprotective dad, a best friend named Tubby* who shares his hatred of all things torturous (like gym class), and a crush on a girl who doesn't know he exists. But everything changes for Jim when a 45-year old mystery resurfaces, threatening the lives of everyone in his seemingly sleepy town. Soon Jim has to team up with a band of unlikely (and some un-human) heroes to battle the monsters he never knew existed.

Smartphones & Tablets

The best and easiest way to enjoy our eAudiobooks is by using the BorrowBox mobile app. If you don't yet have the app you can download it at the Apple App Store or the Google Play Store.

MP3 Player

Otherwise our eAudiobooks work with software you already have. Simply import your eAudiobook downloads to iTunes or Windows Media Player on your home computer and transfer them to your favourite MP3 player.

Step 1
Download

Step 2
Unzip

Step 3
Enjoy

Choose to download the complete audiobook instantly or in parts. When reserved titles are ready for downloading we'll email to let you know.

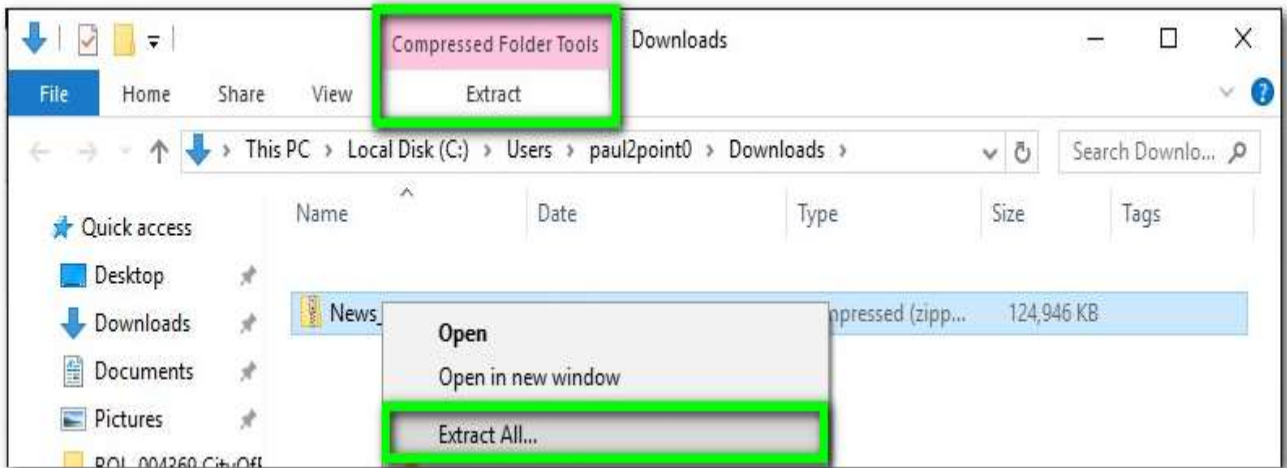

Locate your downloaded eAudiobook file, unzip it and move the file to your media manager on your computer.

Enjoy on your computer, transfer to your device or listen in the car. You can listen Anywhere. Everywhere.

Need to know more? A handy guide will accompany all your downloads. You can also visit our help page or ask at your local library.

Extract

The audiobook will be downloaded as a compressed zip file which will need extracting

Go to your download folder and highlight the .zip file and choose the menu option to 'Extract' or right-click and choose 'Extract All...'

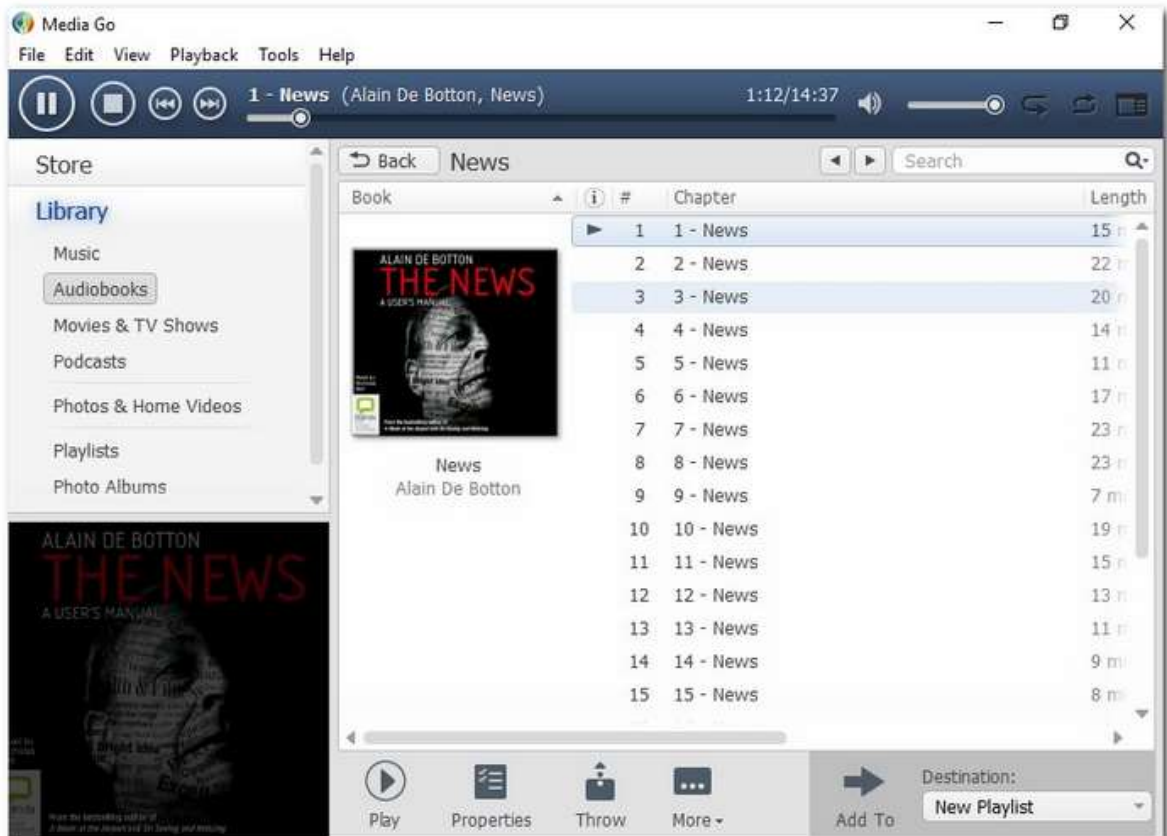

You'll now be asked where to save the book, 'Browse' and choose your Audiobook folder and click 'Extract'

Play

Open you media player.

It may automatically detect your audiobooks, or you my have to point it to them using Options/Preferences.

You can now listen and browse within the book.

Expired

Expired loans can no longer be read, so you can delete them

Go to your Audiobook folder, highlight the item, right click and choose 'Delete'. (You can delete the .zip file as soon as you've successfully extracted the book.)

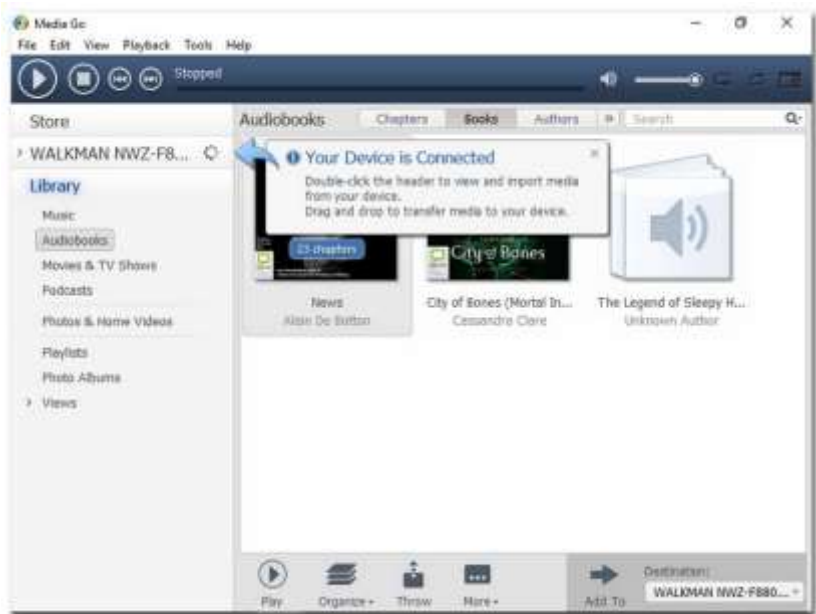

The image shows a screenshot of a library website interface. On the left, there is a window titled "Active Loans/Reserves" with a scroll bar. It lists two items: "Dick Francis Flying Finish" and "J. R. R. Tolkien Return of the King". The "Flying Finish" item has a "Download" button, "Expires in 13 days", a "Renew" button, and a "Return" button highlighted with a green border. Below this is a "Loan History" section. On the right, a dialog box is open with the text "When you will have 6 loans available:" and a large red "Confirm Return" button. Below the dialog box is a book cover for "Flying Finish by Dick Francis".

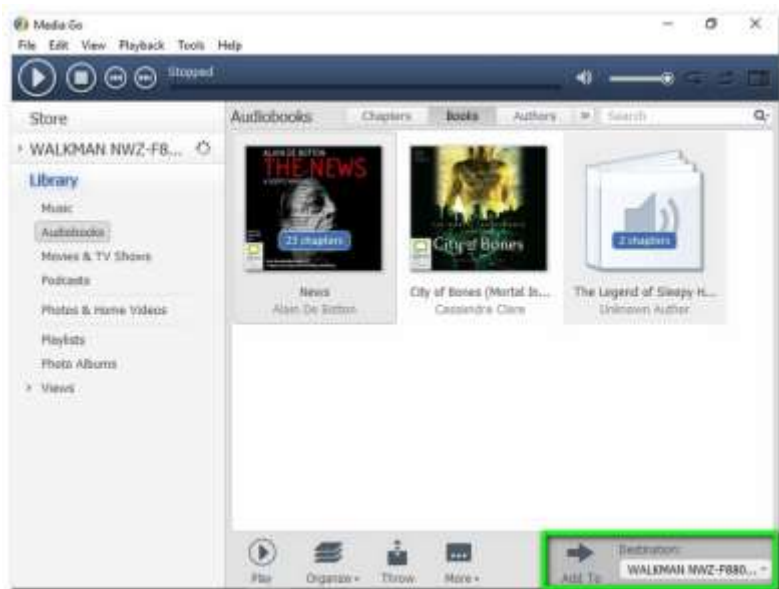

You can return a book early at any time so you can borrow more. This can be done in 'My Account' by clicking 'Return'.

Transfer

Connect your music player to your computer. Your media player should detect it.

Highlight the book and click to add it to your music player

Transfer

Alternatively, Open your music player's files using Windows Explorer, then Drag and Drop the book on to your player.

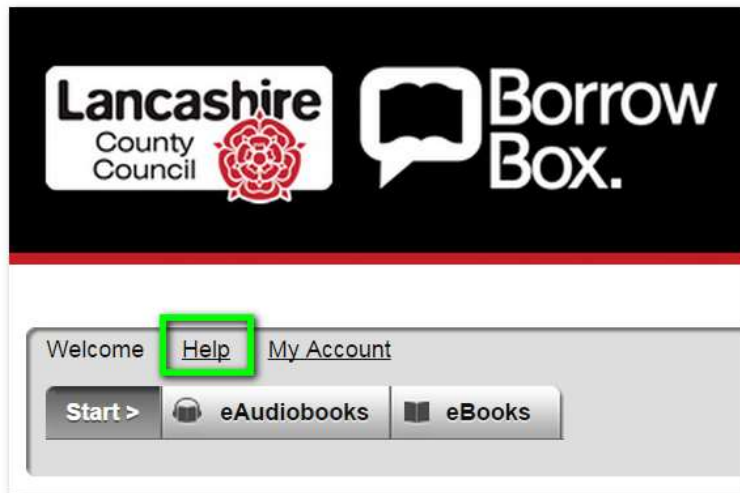

Books can also be burned to CD

Most books will require a number of CDs/DVDs, as the high capacity of DVDs cannot be utilized when creating a playable audio CD.
