

Statement of Reasons

Due to the recent redevelopment of the area, and associated increase in movements, the flat top hump is proposed as an informal crossing point for avoiding danger to persons using the road and for preventing the likelihood of any such danger arising.