

Buying alcohol for young people... so what's the problem?

Fylde

- It is illegal to buy alcohol on behalf of someone who is under 18.
- Drinking alcohol can be harmful to the health, development and wellbeing of young people.
- Underage drinking is often linked with anti-social behaviour, litter and other problems within communities.
- A young person who has been drinking may take more risks and is more likely to become a victim of crime or violence.

Don't pass it on!

Sometimes people aged over 18 buy alcohol on behalf of young people; many young people also get hold of alcohol at home.

Supplying alcohol to an underage person is illegal.

You could get a £90 on-the-spot fine or end up in court with a criminal record and an unlimited fine
