

What Month Am I? Riddles.

I am dark, and yet full of light.
The stars at night are so bright.
Children love me because I am full of gifts.
People sing carols in groups outside.
People put trees inside their homes.

I am _____

I come to start a new beginning.
People make resolutions when I come.
There are snowflakes spinning outside.
You should wear your warm coat and hat.
Warm boots are also a good idea.

I am _____

I bring blazing days with me.
You can enjoy the lovely scent of roses.
It's time to wear your shorts and sandals.
Children enjoy their walks and bike rides in the parks.
I am the lightest month of the year.

I am _____

I bring a lot of sunshine, and yet thunderstorms.
Children dance around a pole holding on to ribbons, and they love it.
I bring babies, lamb and foal.

I am _____

I blow windy, and bring smells of spring.
First leaves peek out when I come.
Brave blackbirds start singing.
I can be quite chilly.
People do their gardening when I come.
Wish your mother happy Mother's Day!

I am _____

I can be quite hot, so don't forget to put on your sun cream when outside.
People go on holidays when I come.
Children love me because they build sand castles.
I bring a lot of fruit and vegetables.

I am _____

What Month Am I? Riddles.

The nights turn crisp and cold when I come.
Children and adults wear coats to go out.
I am not the darkest month of the year but it feels very dark.
It can rain a lot, and it feels chilly.
I am _____

I send gales lashing the trees.
Leaves go swirling and settle into a colourful carpet.
The waves go crashing in the sea.
It rains a lot when I come. I am a cloudy month.
I am _____

There are frosty fogs when I come.
If people don't wrap themselves well, they shiver.
It is nice to stay inside near fire-warm logs. It snows sometimes.
I am the shortest month of the year.
I am _____

Children are joyful when I come.
School is over.
It is time for picnics, heat and drought.
Summer is in full swing. Plenty of sun shine.
I am _____

It is harvest time when I come.
There is ploughing going on in the fields.
I am not as hot as the month before me.
The leaves start turning yellow.
Children go back to school.
I am _____

I bring lots of showers when I come.
Earth wakes up and green things start growing.
People do a lot of work in the garden.
Everybody enjoys first flowers.
Children get chocolate eggs.
I am _____

