

Activities for Sports PowerPoint

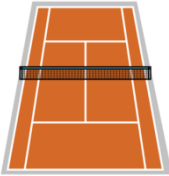

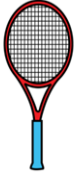

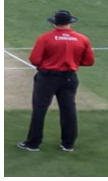

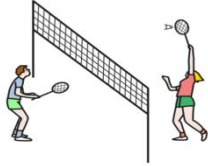

Look at the Sports PowerPoint. If you cannot hear the words, use Google Translate to help.

Cut out the words and pictures below. You can stick them onto card to use as cards. You can use all the cards at once or just half and add more as you learn.

You can use them for lots of different games.

1. Cut up the cards and match the picture with the words. You can have the cards face up or face down, like a memory game.
2. Pick two (or more) cards that are from the same game and say a sentence or two with them in. Example: You play football on a football pitch. You wear football boots.
3. Play 'Hangman' game using the words to help you spell. (Look on Google if you aren't sure how to play Hangman).
4. Use the picture cards to play the card game Happy Families. The families are the cards from the same sport - each family has four cards. Deal out all the cards. Ask the next player for a card you need. (Example, "Have you got a tennis court?") The player has to give it to you if they have it. You can keep asking until you make a mistake, then the next player has a turn. When you have a family of four cards you put them on the table. At the end the player with the most families wins.
5. Go Fish is a card game nearly the same as Happy Families. Deal 5 cards to each player. The rest are shuffled and put face down on the table. First player asks for a card he needs to make a set of cards (for example, "Have you got a football?") If the next player has it, they have to give it to the first player. If they don't have it, they have to say, "Go fish", and the first player collects one from the pile on the table. When you make a set you put it on the table. When the cards have run out the player with the most sets of cards wins.
6. Can you make up your own game to play with the cards? Then teach it to someone!
