INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY SURVEY

The 8th March is International Women's Day, and in recognition of this we have developed a very short survey that explores women who are inspirational and act as role models in an individual's life. We are looking for responses from as wide an audience as possible of all ages. We are very keen to capture young people's voice as part of this, and it would be much appreciated if you could share with the young people you work with as well as your colleagues (and please do complete it yourself too!). The survey is completely anonymous and takes less than 3 minutes to complete. Watch out for the results - we'll be sharing the headlines on International Women's Day.

developed a suite of free primary financial literacy lessons for 7-11 year olds. The lessons teach pupils the importance of forming good financial habits which can help with money management now and in the future.

MONEY GUIDES FOR CHILDREN BY FAMILY BUILDING SOCIETY

Family Building Society's series of money guides for children are designed to help children aged 5 to 18 build knowledge, skills and confidence to manage their finances well.

The 10 guides teach children about managing money and personal finance; the concept of bank and savings accounts; the value of money and the complex topics of credit, budgeting, and foreign currency.

The guides are designed in a fun and engaging way with tips and activities and are a great starting point for discussions around money for the whole family.

MINDING YOUR MONEY

How can we support the next generation of young people to become more financially capable?

This was one of the questions asked at our recent Minding Your Money virtual event featuring Martin Lewis CBE and a number of industry-leading experts. During the session, they considered how we can work together to help young people develop the financial skills and capabilities they need to thrive in today's society.

MONEY SKILLS ACTIVITY BADGE BY SCOUTS

Scouts are used to dealing with money. They fundraise for charities, budget for camps, and raise money for jamborees. Now, Scouts have developed badges that focus on fun, active ways for young people to build their money skills.

HSBC UK have supported Scouts to create a fun and practical new Money Skills Activity Badge for Beavers and Cubs. They have created the badge and activities using research COULD YOUR SCHOOL BECOME A CENTRE OF EXCELLENCE?

We are always keen to hear from educational providers that would like to join the Centres of Excellence network. By earning this prestigious accreditation you will audit your current financial education curriculum, embed best practice and then share your new knowledge and skills with your wider community.

For more information, please refer to our Centre of Excellence home page or apply here.

from Young Money and working with volunteers and young people across the UK. Scouts are exploring how our money choices can benefit our community, learning about how different people use their money, and having plenty of fun with hands-on activities.

TEACHER TRAINING

Primary, Secondary & SEND

In addition to our Financial Education Teacher Training events for secondary or SEND specific teaching, we are offering free, in-house training for up to 500 primary schools through Money Heroes to give teachers the confidence to deliver financial education.

Virtual events for secondary and SEND are scheduled for Wednesday 20th April. School specific primary sessions are available anytime.

E-learning

This month we are pleased to announce the launch of our latest free eLearning course The Teachable Moment. The course explores financial education in the context of the current and new Curriculum for Wales. It is aimed at primary and secondary educators working with learners age 9–13 and focuses on the 'teachable moment' for financial education which appears at the point of transition from primary to secondary school.

Our Primary and Secondary eLearning courses are still available.

MONEY HEROES

Money Heroes, from Young Money supported by HSBC UK, offers financial education resources for primary children, aged 3–11 including tools and guidance for parents and teachers and free teacher training.

We've had incredible feedback from previous training events:

"I have already had staff popping in to say how much they enjoyed it and how valuable it was. You were a fountain of knowledge, and I can't believe there are so many free resources that we have access to. I will certainly be thinking about how we can embed this into our curriculum and possibly deliver a themed day or week in the summer term."

Contact us at moneyheroes@y-m.org.uk or visit <https://moneyheroes.org.uk> for more information.

- Open to all 4-19 year olds in the UK
- Submit your entries by 1st April
- FREE to enter
- Perfect for in-school delivery and home learning

This year we're exploring the theme of money management and financial inclusion.

Children and young people are encouraged to consider the importance of having access to information that allows us to make wise money choices.

To support the Challenge, you'll have access to a Challenge Pack including information about the prizes for winning entries as well as a set of teaching materials and activities designed to develop young people's understanding of responsible consumerism.
