Hello Simon,

After seeking legal advice, I can grant permission for the appointed inspector to visit the site.

However, due to the sensitive nature of the current tenants, I will need to know who and when they will be visiting.

Thanks

Dear Howard,

I hope all is well with you.

The council are progressing this matter with a view to submitting it to the planning inspectorate, as part of this process I am required to request permission for the appointed inspector to access the land as part of the decision making process. Please could you provide this permission?

Kind regards
