Potential risks in using technology with early years children

The online world

The online world offers amazing opportunities for children but also brings elements of potential risk too. The digital environment is an integral part of children's lives and when considering their general wellbeing and safety we need to also factor in their relationship with technology too.

The Children's Safeguarding Assurance Partnership section 'Online' provides useful information, advice, guidance, and resources to support the children's workforce, parents and carers to help children and young people stay safe online.
