

Great Teaching Courses Summer Term 2024

This provides a brief reference list of Great Teaching Courses planned in Summer 2024. Amongst these are courses based on using metacognition to develop learning; developing a strong learning culture; making feedback meaningful and the power of formative assessment. The Great Teaching courses can also be tailored to meet schools' individual needs and delivered as twilight or INSET days. Some details can be seen below but further information can be found on the website: Courses - Lancashire Professional Development Service

PTL150 NEW - Great Teaching Networks
This is a brand-new addition to the Great Teaching suite of courses. Developing consistent high quality pedagogical practice across the school will impact positively on attainment across the curriculum. These network meetings will allow colleagues to reflect on current practice and identify areas for development.	Please click here to book a place:  Details - Lancashire Professional Development Service
PTL149 - Bitesize: Feedback Self and Peer Evaluation
This one-hour twilight is a new addition to the Great Teaching suite of courses. Great Teaching Bitesize sessions will allow busy teachers to focus on one or two key elements to help them reflect on, and enhance, their practice. In this twilight we look at how we go about activating students as learners of their own learning and peer-assessment, activating students as teaching resources for one another.	Please click here to book a place:  Details - Lancashire Professional Development Service

Look out for these Great Teaching courses coming in Autumn 2024

PTL114 - Great Teaching: Adaptive and Responsive Teaching
This course is part of a series of courses using evidence-based research to develop, and embed, 'great' teaching and learning. This popular course will consider the 'foundations' which need to be in place for effective adaptive and responsive practice within the classroom. It will give delegates a range of practical ideas, which can be applied immediately, to enhance their practice.	Please click here to book a place: Details - Lancashire Professional Development Service
PTL145 – Great Teaching: Bitesize - Retrieval Strategies
In this course we will: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• examine research on how children learn and the practical implications of this for teaching and learning; and</li> <li>• share a range of retrieval activities that can be used to help children remember more across the curriculum.</li> </ul>	Please click here to book a place: Details - Lancashire Professional Development Service
PTL138 - Great Teaching Bitesize: Explicit Teaching of Learning Behaviours
Consider how to improve behaviour for learning through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- teaching consistent, predictable routines; and</li> <li>- explicit teaching of learning behaviours e.g., managing distractions, being an independent learner, being an effective learning partner etc. Many schools are facing increasing challenges regarding low level disruption and passive learning. This course will give a range of strategies to address this.</li> </ul>	Please click here to book a place: Details - Lancashire Professional Development Service
