

Lancashire

County Council

Wildlife & Countryside Act 1981.

Claimed public footpaths southward from Public Footpath No. 135, Accrington, Hyndburn Borough Council.

Part 1.

Claimed length A-X-Y to D.

Public Footpath No 135, from Sandy Lane.

Point A from Fp 135.

Stone wall and metal barrier at point A.

Behind the metal barrier at point A,
looking down onto Fp 135.

“Private” notice in the field beyond point A.
(repeated on the school security fencing)

Looking back at the “Private” sign from the claimed route.

Claimed route between points X and Y.

Claimed route at point Y.

Claimed route from Y to the south.

Looking back towards point X.

Approaching point D.

Metal and timber fences across point D.

Point D also showing a visible trodden path leading towards point E (not part of the claimed route).

Looking back towards point X from near point D.

"Un-named road" referred to by the claimants from V to W.

“Un-named road” towards V from point E.

“Un-named road” towards W.

Part 2.

Claimed length E- Z to X.

Point E with the broken down stone wall.

Looking back at point E.

Visible trodden path from E towards the claimed line Y to D (not part of the claimed routes).

Looking towards point Z. (Note gateway in fence into wooded valley not part of the claimed route)

Gateway leading the visible path into the woodland (not part of the claim).

Point Z
where the claimed route turns to the north.

Looking back from point Z towards E.

Claimed route from Z into the belt of trees.

Claimed route following visible path through trees.

Looking back towards point Z.

Claimed route continues through trees.

Claimed route leaves the trees towards point X.

Point Y towards point C.

Part 3.

Claimed length Y to C.

Approaching point C.

Timber and wire fences at point C.

From beyond the end of the claimed route at C
and looking back towards point Y.

